GEORGE ADDISON AWARDED FIRST PRIZE FOR COMPOSITION

When Mr. Craig was here recently and gave an address on Agriculture, quite a number of the public school boys and girls attended same. The Sexsmith Board of Trade, under whose auspices Mr. Craig gave his address, offered a prize, which consisted of a season ticket for the skating rink, in the best composition sent in by any of the pupils. After the judging was over, George Addison was awarded the prize. Vice Warden came so close that she also was given a season ticket.

SCHOLARS HAVE WORRIED LOOK

We have noticed the last few days, the worried looks on the faces of the boys and girls on their way to school. This may be on account of the cold weather, but no doubt the real reason is on account of the entered illness which will be handed out to them during the next ten days or two weeks on account of the Christmas holidays. The older people should be more thoughtful of these children and not force this great calamity on them.

HOCKEY IN FULL SWING

The hockey boys are in full swing now and are practicing faithfully. They are expecting anytime to receive an invitation from the Toronto Maple Leafs or the Boston Bruins to come down and give them a game.

SEXSMITH TRIBUNE Scribes EXTENDS XMAS GREETINGS

Women's Institute to Hold 'Midnight Frolic' at the Blue Lantern on New Years Eve

The public are reminded of the "Midnight Frolic" at the Blue Lantern at midnight on New Year's Eve, December 31.

This dance is under the auspices of the Women's Institute of Sexsmith and the proceeds of the Christmas Holidays Sexsmith Maternity Hospital, which in itself is a good reason why you should attend. But do not think for a moment that you are just giving this money away, as you are going to get exceptionally good value for same.

Mr. Frank Gleason, who will be floor manager, informs us that there will be several novel dances, also old-time dances, for which he is expecting an old-time fiddler to be in attendance.

CHILDREN GAVE THEIR MOTHER PLEASANT BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. Wm. Hall received rather a delightful surprise on Sunday last, the occasion being her birthday.

In the morning Mother attended church service, and her three young hopefuls decided to give her a surprise. Mrs. Denison evidently was party to the conspiracy, as she kept the "surprise" at her home for considerable time after church. When Mrs. Hall arrived home at around 1 o'clock dinner was ready, with all the fixings, which included a birthday cake.

Besides the Hall family, the Denison clan, and Mr. Vic Spicer were present.

THE CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

The Christmas Message in Luke 2:10 is prefaced by a comforting exhortation: "Fear not." Out of the darkness of the night came an unusual appearance. The shepherds' reaction was one of fear, but the angel said "Fear not." Don't skip the preface. We need it today in a world of apprehension and fear.

"Ye fearful saints, keep courage like a lion, for the Lord is with you, and He will be with you, and He will be with you, and He will be with you."

In blessings on your head."

The message of good tidings and great joy was a gospel in itself. The shepherds were slaves under the Roman power. The angel told of a Saviour and of deliverance. The Jews were hoping their Saviour would be a King. They mistook the point of the message.

"They were all looking for a king To slay their foes and lift them high: That wasn't a little baby Who should make a woman cry."

Are we missing the point of the message? We are looking for a king To slay his name Jesus for he shall save his people from their sin. Rev. R. Simons, Sexsmith.

BUFFALO LAKES

BUFFALO LAKE, Dec. 18.—The skating rink is now fixed up ready for hockey. If only the weatherman would make up his mind to quit this snowing and blowing and give us some ultra-violet rays instead we would have a few games.

Poppe Ganselweid has entered the dairy business, having traded a bunch of green oat bundles for a milk cow. We wish him every success in his new venture. Mrs. Hall arrived home at around 1 o'clock dinner was ready, with all the fixings, which included a birthday cake.

Besides the Hall family, the Denison clan, and Mr. Vic Spicer were present.

THE PERMANENCE OF CHRISTMAS TRUTH

Travelers find the village of Bethlehem changed from its simplicity of centuries ago; an elaborately pillared church stands upon the traditional site of the manger stable, but the hills stand the same. So also still stands the eternal truth for all who have a listening ear for the heavenly voices of Peace and Goodwill, for all who will welcome the gift of perfect love. The everlasting promise of brotherhood for all who worship our Father, the eternal ideal of a rich loyal family life, the shining goal, the simplicity and sincerity of childhood, these are the gifts we still receive from the first who as ever makes His entrance into our humanity as we permit Him to enter.

BELLEVILLE NEWS

BELLEVILLE, Dec. 17.—The weather still continues to stay cold, but it does not seem to stop the people from coming out to the whist drives, held every night. The last one, held Saturday night, was the biggest yet, some seven tables sitting down, and a large number of people sitting out. The prizes went to Mrs. Archibald, and the consolation to Miss Pearl Ahnesen; gentlemen's first was won by Ivan Pearson, and consolation by Bunny Fortin.

There will be no more whist drives this month or your coming to the Christmas tree held on Saturday night, the 23rd, and the big basket social and dance on the 25th. Let's all try and get out for both these events.

Our local main place on taking some days' lay-off around Christmas. We wonder why. Here's hoping, Jack! May all your troubles be little ones, and much happiness.

GOODWIN

By J. N.

GOODWIN, Dec. 14.—Old King Winter is now letting us know he means business after the joke he played on us some few weeks ago. Some time ago one of our newsmen asked an oldtime his opinion about the weather. The old boy looked at him and said: "Son, any man who professes to be able to forecast the weather in this country is either a newsmen or a fool. And I believe that just about hit the nail on the head."

A few days ago a Goodwin resident had the good fortune to run into a nice bunch of deer just when he wanted most rather badly—and had the misfortune to have 14 shells of all the misfortune. Better luck, next time Art.

The club committee held their last meeting for 1933 and everything is O.K. for the Christmas tree. The donations are already well over $14.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thew were business visitors to Deloit Wednesday.

Between 20 and 30 head of cattle arrived to be slaughtered at Fraser Bros. in a strip of timber about 15 miles south of the Simenette River and are getting in very poor condition and some are dying off, so trappers have reported.

Deer are very plentiful here this season, but moose are farther back and harder to get.

Sunny Alberta! The sun has shone about 23 hours in the past three weeks.

Win. Woods has a new cure for the tummy ache. Billy will make this cure known to anyone suffering from this complaint.

One of our neighbors said we were going to have an open winter, I wonder which winter it will be.

As this will be the last news item from this district before Christmas, this correspondent wishes the Tribune staff—and even the Editor's dog—a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

HAZELMERE NEWS

HAZELMERE, Dec. 15.—We are wondering what happened to Mr. Shields. We suspect car trouble.

There was a house party at Lloyd East's last week. Also one at Mr. Speed's. Both parties were well attended and everybody reports a good time.

Miss Helen Walker celebrated her eleventh birthday anniversary on the ninth of December. Congratulations, Helen Mary.

Winter has descended upon us with a vengeance.

The Rio Grande W. I. held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Ramsey, the roll call being a Christmas verse. After the usual business was discussed (and its real business, no fooling), nominations were then called for. Mrs. Meror is our new president in place of Mrs. Walker, and Mrs. Ellis is secretary-treasurer in place of Mrs. Cunningham. There also visiting and program committees elected. After which the hostess served a dainty lunch.

By the time these items appear in this issue the club will be over, and we will all know how we stand in the affections of good old Santa Claus.

The coal mine which has been discovered on the banks of the Little Smoky River about nine miles from the bridge is being steadily developed.

The train was delayed by Mrs. E. Moore of the Smoky, G. Hare of Kinross and E. Kinder of Peace River. Owing to the shortage of qualified miners the work is considerably retarded, but several men are employed doing preparatory work.

Ellen Carpenter, who is working at the mine, was home for the week-end. Christie Cunningham, who is staying with Mrs. Geo. White, visited at her home on Sunday.

A wood cutting bee was held at the schoolhouse this week with a very good attendance, thus showing the well developed community spirit of the district.

Margorie Ray was the guest of Aggie Cunningham one night last week.

It is a good thing for the people of this district that Mrs. Smith, Sr., has a very kind heart, as she lives right on the edge of the settlement and people are always stopping there, half frozen, on their way home from town, that they always find a cup of tea, a good meal, or a warm bed awaiting them.

The latest to avail themselves of her hospitality were the Carpenter boys, who spent the night at her home last week.

A Tough Patient
The doctor shook his head doubtfully.

"Tell me what exactly is wrong with you?" he asked his patient.

"I can't explain it," said the patient. "I only know I suffer."

"The doctor nodded.

"What kind of life do you lead?" he asked.

"I work like an ox. I eat like a wolf. I'm as tired as a dog at the end of the day and I sleep like a horse," was the answer.

"I'm," said the doctor. "In that case I should advise you to go and see a veterinary surgeon."

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A BABY?
Mrs. Jack Pinlan has just returned from Edmonton with a fine one-month old baby girl. As they have been married a number of years and the pleasure of having a baby in the home dealt them, they decided to apply to a mail order house. Therefore they now have a fine well-bred baby of good parentage, with a T. Eaton guarantee with it, but charges extra, hence the reason Mrs. Pinlan had to go to Edmonton to accept delivery.

HUALLEN NEWS
Christmas, 1933!
What fragrant memories past and gone are aroused when our thoughts turn again to Christmas. Around the festive board we gather, the room decorated with festoons of evergreens, and things appropriate at this season and if we are fortunate, a Christmas tree in the background loaded down with gifts. It is the time that brings many happy family reunions, but alas! there will also be vacant chairs, as many are away from home—some, perhaps, in distant lands where others have crossed the Great Divide.

There will also be many homes where Christmas will be a rather cheerless affair, caused no doubt by the greatest reason, that the non-believers seem to have no sign of abatement. While we pass the day in festivity and gaiety, let us ponder over the fact that the day we celebrate as Christmas was set apart for the memory of the birth of the Carpenter of Nazareth and that perhaps if we all followed more closely His teachings much of the bitterness and misanthropy in the world might be swept away. Let us fervently hope that are another Christmas, some of those "Peace on Earth and goodwill towards men" might become reality, instead of being an empty phrase, as it seems to be today.

A bitter northeast wind, accompanied by snow, drove the mercury to record low levels for this winter. The thermometer registered 40 degrees below zero Monday, December 18, at valley, and at time of writing, with a bitter wind blowing from the north, it remains cold. Mr. Weatherman, we have had enough, so kindly switch on a chinook for a change.

A number of local dance fans who heaved the elements and took in the box social and danced at Aspen Ridge last Friday night, report spending a very enjoyable time.

To his many friends in this district the news of the death of A. B. Hodson caused genuine regret. His son at Grande Prairie was always the news for music lovers when in town and it was always a delight to listen to him when he played on his violin.

ELKS' BIG CHRISTMAS TREE PROGRAM
The Elks are putting on a big Christmas tree program the afternoon of the 22nd, which will be a community affair. No child will be left all followed more closely His teachings much of the bitterness and misanthropy in the world might be swept away. Let us fervently hope that are another Christmas, some of those "Peace on Earth and goodwill towards men" might become reality, instead of being an empty phrase, as it seems to be today.

UNITED CHURCH CHRISTMAS TREE POSTPONED
Owing to the Elks' Christmas tree being on the 22nd, the United Church Christmas tree program has been postponed until Saturday evening, the 23rd.

LEAVING FOR EDMONTON
On Friday night train Mr. and Mrs. Finch will be leaving us to go to Edmonton. We will miss their presence much in our social and church work.

DOES GOOD WORK CLEARING AWAY SNOW
Mr. Geo. Pearson has been doing good work with the snow plow opening up the streets and sidewalks after the heavy fall of snow we have had. The children now play "pussy want a corner" in the streets.

LATE TRAIN DISAPPOINTS MANY
Tuesday's train was slower than usual. As we had quite a crowd in from the country waiting for their Christmas mail, many had to go home without it.

LAYMAN IN PULPIT SUNDAY
Bro. Finch filled the pulpit on Sunday evening, owing to Rev. Mr. Wink being detained at Albright, visiting a sick lady, Mrs. Rich.

FOUR GUESSED CORRECT SIZE OF OVERALLS
Salmon's Supply Company has brought the "Carhartt" overall game contest to a close. The lucky ones, or the ones who displayed good judgment as to the size of the big pair of overalls which Salmon's have been displaying in their show windows for a month, were: Stanley Thieme and Ernest Dyer of Hythe, J. M. Horn.

BAD HEART
BAD HEART, Dec. 17.—Mr. H. H. Hox was a business visitor at the home of E. Clayton on Thursday.

The weather is still keeping cold. We hope for a change soon.

Jack McLeod took his first load of wheat to Webster on Monday and on arriving home related a lot of adventures.

We are sorry to say that one of our neighbors, Mrs. E. Clayton, left for British Columbia on Friday last. We hope she is happily settled in her new home.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. E. Clayton the night before she left. A lot of the neighbors came to say good-bye.

Philip Rundenman has been in the Bad Heart district a few days with his saw and got quite a lot of work.

The dialogue for the Christmas tree seem to be coming along all right.

both classical and old-time melodies. Although he has passed on, his genial personality will always be remembered.

"For none that knew him need be told."

A warmer heart death never made cold.

A meeting of the proposed curing club was held last Saturday evening. It was decided to levy all members to meet existing obligations.

Ken, Edgerton is at present on the sick list, being confined to the house with a chill.

The coming of Christmas will be celebrated by the children of St. John's Lutheran Church Sunday evening, December 24. A welcome is extended to all.

Jake Heickel, Geo. Shadock, Otto Shadock and Melvin Wilbey left last week for across the Wapiti on a hunting trip.

A. Boyce, travelling superintendent of the Alberta Pacific elevator, was a business visitor here last Saturday.

Seen and Heard
Overheard at an elevator: "It might not make good flour, but it ought to make darned good moonshine!"

Frank W. shooting at a stump six times. On dead!

That Harry is hoping Santa Claus sends him "a short course in clock repairing."

A number of dance enthusiasts had "cold feet" last Friday night.

That wedding bells will be ringing next week.

Sandy Macpherson and Maggie, his wife, stopped in front of a restaurant window in which was hung a card bearing the words: "Luncheon from 12 to 2 p.m., 10c. 6d."

Not So Far Wrong

A judge's little daughter, who had attended her father's court for the first time, was very much interested in the proceedings. After her return home she told her mother:

"Papa made a speech, and several other men made speeches to 12 men who sat all together, and then those 12 men were put in a dark room to be deprived."

Gleanings of Interest To the Women Folks

By THE GLEANER

PRIMARY DEPARTMENTS CHRISTMAS TREE

The primary department of the United Church Sunday school had their Christmas tree in the basement of the church on Monday evening.

Santa Claus was in a great hurry, so he left his sack of candies, popcorn and prizes to be distributed by the teachers. Prizes were given for perfect attendance and memory work.

Each class contributed a tiny share towards a program of entertainment. A great deal of credit should be given to the primary teachers for all the interest they have taken in the tiny tots, and especially to Mrs. W. J. Thomson, the superintendent.

The following prizes were given:

For Attendance—Joan Shaver, Gordon Peavey, Dorcas Holland, Muriel Sharpe, Alice Henning, Alma Chappell, Dorothy Patterson, Elsie Mills, Marie Dunsing, Edna Keys, Marguerite Oliver, Marvin Aikin, Miss Henning.

For Golden Text Memory Work—Elsie Mills, Marguerite Dunsing, Alma Clarkson, Alice Henning, Dorothy Patterson, Marvin Aikin.

FUNNY FABLES MEET THE WHOLE TOWN TALK

Here, the whole town's talking all right—about "The Whole Town's Talking," that screaming funny fable of Anita Yous which the A. Y. P. A. Dramatic Society put on so successfully at the Capitol Theatre last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Spicer, Mr. Fitzgerald, Pete Atkinson, Mervin Lewis, Gilbert Styles,

Miss Browne, Dorothy Crammy and Mrs. Storm need no introduction to Grande Prairie audiences, but Miss Cave-Brown, Mrs. D. Buck, Mrs. Sweeney and Miss Nella Taylor are newcomers to our theatregoers, and very welcome ones, too, as I assure the Vox Pop of G. P. must agree after seeing their excellent performance.

ENJOYABLE LUNCH AND DANCE

After their play on Friday night the A. Y. P. A. and their friends had a very enjoyable lunch and dance at the Speke Hall until 2 a.m. Pensioners' orders supplied the music.

The obliging Mr. H. Fitzgibbon indulged, but Mr. H. Fitzgibbon absolutely refused to do his famous cabaret and waltz.

For some of the dance numbers Miss Dorothy Crammy relieved Miss May they find your dance company. The Boy Scouts, willing and eager helpers, served the lunch.

CHILDREN'S PAGEANT WELL ATTENDED

On Wednesday night, at the Elks' Hall, Grande Prairie, the United and Anglican churches, and the whole town. The stage was decorated as a stable, Mrs. Jackson being the Virgin Mary, Mervin Lewis as Joseph, Mr. Spicer the Angel Gabriel, and the three shepherds were Mr. Peavey, Mervin Lewis and Jack Styles.

Mr. Fitzgerald, another angel, announced Christ's birth to the three wise men—Rev. Mr. Jackson, Rev. Mr. Chappell, and Rev. Mr. Spicer. The slaves distributed bags of candy and nuts to the children.

The two choirs sang the beautiful old Christmas carols from the balcony. Grouped around the hall were Sunday school children, dressed to represent the nations of the world.

There was a very good turnout in spite of the weather.

HEARTY LAUGHTER OVERSPOKE BANDAGES

Here's a true story and the finest compliment yet paid to the A. Y. P. A. thespians. Among Friday's audience was recent apprentice bandagee, he laughed so heartily he had to return to the hospital and be re-bandaged after the play.

DOINGS OF THE BRIDGE CLUB

The Two-Table Bridge Club met at Mrs. Dickey's on Monday and the One-Table at Mrs. H. Morrison's. The Three-Table Club games have been postponed until after New Year's.

"The gates of love and beauty are opened wide today. Joy and peace and gladness are on their earth-bound way. May they find your door open. And gladly enter there. To give you their treasure. A holy, happy share."

"... he who gives a child a treat Makes Joy-bells ring in Heaven's street. And who gives a child a home Builds palaces in Kingdom come."

There is a boy in his hand; He's a little fellow with a thousand One touch of that magic wand. Bear through sorrow, wrong and ruth. In thy heart the dear of youth. On thy lips the smile of truth."

"Love much. There is no waste in freely giving; More blessed is it even, than to receive."

Who loves much, alone finds life worth living; Love on, through doubt and dark; There is no thing which Love may not achieve."

Ladies, here's a toast to you: Here's to the girl who always is in. Who doesn't lose her head even for a minute. Plays well the game, and knows the limit. And still gets all the fun there's in it."

The Gleaner sends you her greetings and good wishes. She believes there is a new game started in town, called "The Christmas Game of the Gleaner."

If she is of so bashful and retiring a nature that she wishes to hide her identity under a nom de plume, she can leave her card of darkness, last, being made in the name of publicity, her face growth red and her speech stammered!

She has her own reasons for wishing to be known as the Gleaner only—and it is just what she does, glean scraps of information and items of local news so that your local newspaper may be of more personal interest to you.

The Gleaner will never offend intentionally—her aim is to make her column alive and worth reading, and she sincerely hopes she has succeeded in gaining your approval—but if she has not, please write and tell her why.

He: "It says in this paper that 75 per cent of the people who do not pay their taxes are women."

She: "Well, that proves what I've always told you—that women are more economical than men."

The Tribune wishes to acknowledge receipt of a Christmas greeting card from Mr. and Mrs. Crane-Williams, which was posted at Singapore. Within the cover is a beautiful colored picture of a Japanese temple.

Mrs. A. Boyer's mother, Mrs. Hughes of Clyde, arrived on Tuesday's train to spend a few months with her daughter.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Mission on Wednesday afternoon, when Myrtle Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie McAllister of Grande Prairie, became the bride of Eric Alfred, son of Mr. Joseph Partlow of Grande Prairie.

Head and Mr. Horace Partlow supported the bride and bridegroom, respectively. Rev. Nelson Chappell performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Partlow will reside on their farm northwest of town.

Electric neck heaters are being used to relieve sore and stiff necks. This and applied heat to the small bulb of the spinal cord and brain, scientists believe that this contrivance may prove to be a method for calming or regulating the entire nervous system.
